Men Return to Work.

The Riverside plate mill resumes this morning, as per the company's notices to that effect last week. The day men, who were on strike for an increase of wages, held a meeting Saturday night, which was attended by only part of their number. At this meeting it was decided to go back to work at the old wages.

Epworth League Excursion.

An excursion from Moundsville to Steubenville will be given next Thursday by the Simpson chapter of the Epworth League, of Moundsville, and the members expect to be joined at Wheeling by members of the local chapters. The steamer T. M. Bayne has been chartered for the occasion, and a pleasant time is assured all who attend. The Moundsville Leaguers give an excursion every year, and hope this attempt will be the success of former years.

Will Have Horse Racing.

The general committee, having in charge the details for the Cathedral picnic, August 25, at the state fair grounds, met yesterday afternoon and after hearing from sub-committees which reported progress, adjournment was taken until Wednesday evening. The picnic programme will be made very attractive, a feature being five horse races in the afternoon, arrangements to that effect having been made with the Wheeling Jockey Club. One will be a hurdle race.

The Child at Matches.

The two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Hunter, of Moundsville, died yesterday morning under very sad circumstances. On Thursday the child ate the surplus off some parrot matches she was playing with and as a consequence became very ill. No serious results were anticipated, and her condition seemed to improve until yesterday morning, and death eased her sufferings at 10:15 o'clock. Mr. Hunter, who was in Baltimore, left for his home yesterday upon receipt of the intelligence.

One of the most popular places for driving parties these days is the Mount View house, on the Cadiz pike, two miles west of Bridgeport. Besides furnishing "all the delicacies of the season," the proprietors and his amiable wife, Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Leatherwood, by their genial nature and hospitable treatment of guests, make a stop at their house a season of rest and a joy forever. The famous lithia springs adjoin the place.

CORPORAL ED DARBY

Goes Back to the Ranks at His Own Request—Doings at Camp Cobb.

Another breezy letter from Camp Cobb, Fredericksburg, Va., is contributed to the Intelligencer by Private Ben Honecker, of Company G, Captain Franzheim, of the Fourth U. S. Immunes. The letter is as follows:

Typhoid fever has broken out in camp and there are two cases in the hospital; they are supposed to have been caused by drinking water from a nearby well.

Tuesday morning a fight occurred in Company L between a corporal and private, as a result of which the corporal was stabbed in the side with a fork and had his left arm broken; the wound in his side is not serious.

Teamster McConnaughey, of Company G, was operated on for appendicitis Wednesday afternoon. The operation was successful and it is hoped it will not be long until he is back among the boys of Company G, who are anxiously awaiting his recovery.

Friday was pay day and Friday night a provost guard patrolled the town. While making an arrest, one of the prisoners broke from the guards and ran. He was promptly followed and refused to halt when ordered to do so, and one of the guards brought him to the ground with a bayonet thrust, but the wound is not supposed to be serious.

Corporal Ed Darby has been reduced to the ranks at his own request. The boys would have liked him to remain a corporal, as he was one of the best non-coms in the company.

A flag-raising occurred Thursday night in Company G. Private Hook made the presentation speech, and the flag was accepted by "Joe" Hunter, who made one of his usual brilliant speeches. Patriotic songs were sung by Privates Brunelle, Smith and Kaiser. When we will get away from here nobody knows. The boys have become impatient and since signs of peace are spoken of they seem to have lost interest and would rather be home, if they can't do any fighting. B. H.
